Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd.

Angela Bow appointed Head Emerging Asia

Bank Julius Baer has appointed Angela Bow as Head Emerging Asia. Based in Hong Kong, she will lead the Bank's efforts to strengthen its wealth management franchise in the Philippine and Thai markets.

Hong Kong, 3 May 2016 – Bank Julius Baer has appointed Angela Bow as Head Emerging Asia with immediate effect. In this newly created role, she will lead the Bank's efforts to strengthen its wealth management franchise in the Philippine and Thai markets. Based in Hong Kong, she will report to Jimmy Lee, Head Asia Pacific at Bank Julius Baer.

Angela Bow has more than 30 years of experience in international private banking across Hong Kong, Tokyo, Geneva and New York, holding senior relationship management and market leadership roles. She joins Julius Baer from Credit Suisse, where she was most recently Market Group Head Philippines and Deputy Market Area Head Japan & Emerging Asia. Previously, she had worked at UBS Wealth Management for 14 years and the last position held was Country Team Head for Philippines Market. She also worked at Citibank Private Bank and Swiss Bank Corporation Private Bank earlier in her career.

"I am delighted to welcome Angela to Julius Baer. She brings an enormous wealth of experience in international private banking, especially in developing business strategy and cultivating the most sophisticated client relationships. Our ability to continuously attract top talent reaffirms Julius Baer's commitment to its leading private banking franchise in Asia Pacific," Jimmy Lee said.

Angela Bow will work with the teams in Hong Kong and Singapore that serve the Philippine and Thai markets to enhance Julius Baer's penetration.

"We see strong potential for international wealth management in some of the emerging economies. This appointment shows our commitment to bringing the Bank's international capabilities and best practices to the emerging markets. I am confident that Angela's leadership will help our teams to further grow these markets," Jimmy Lee added.

According to the Julius Baer Wealth Report: Asia published last year, the wealth of high net worth individuals (HNWI) is expected to double in the Philippines by 2016 to USD 121.6 billion from around USD 60.0 billion in 2010. It would further rise to USD 197 billion in 2020. Thailand's HNWI wealth is seen rising to around USD 344 billion in 2020, up from USD 272 billion in 2014.

Notes to editors

HNWI are defined as persons with net investable wealth of USD 1 million or more, excluding property that is their main residence.
