Indosuez strengthens its Middle East business with senior appointments

Indosuez Wealth Management, the global wealth management division of Crédit Agricole Group, has appointed Nancy Sebaali and Rolf Schilde as Middle East Team Leaders in Dubai and Geneva, respectively. Both Nancy and Rolf will join the Middle East Management Committee and will report to the Global Head of the Middle East region, François R. Farjallah.

François R. Farjallah, Global Head of the Middle East, commented:

"We are strengthening our Middle East business for the benefit of our clients across the region. As part of its growth strategy "Shaping Indosuez 2020", Indosuez is increasing its presence and activities in key, attractive markets, through organic growth.

As the wealth management landscape evolves, we will continue to invest in top talent and in our full range of wealth management expertise to better service an increasingly sophisticated clientele across the region and within our international network. Indosuez has a rich history in the Middle East, and we will continue to develop our business in this dynamic region."

As Team Leader for the Middle East based in Dubai, Nancy Sebaali will have a mandate to further grow our business for the GCC and Lebanon markets. Prior to joining Indosuez, Nancy was with Société Générale Group for 11 years in various senior positions, including Global Coordinator for the Middle East private banking division. Nancy holds a M.S. in Management from the Ecole de Management de Lyon in France and a B.A. in Economics from Saint Joseph University in Lebanon.

Rolf Schilde will join as Team Leader for the Arabian Gulf Team in Geneva, and will principally focus on strengthening our business across these markets. Before moving to Indosuez, Rolf spent 31 years at UBS in various senior Middle East banking roles, including Head of Wealth Management at the DIFC, and as Head of Abu Dhabi, Bahrain and Lebanon's representative offices. Rolf holds a Bachelor of Business Administration from KLZ in Zurich.
